2013 Remodeling Expo set for January 25-27

Mark your calendars for the Annual NARI Remodeling Expo. This year's three day event will be held Friday, January 25 through Sunday, January 27 at the Madison Marriott West. Tickets for the event are $5 general admission. Parking is free.

The Expo is supported this year by Gold Sponsor, Madison Gas and Electric and Silver Sponsor, American Kennedy Hahn Appliance.

The Expo will feature a wide array of home improvement services and remodeling products.

A popular feature of the Expo are the free educational seminars. This year Larry is presenting four seminars (see article below for details). There are 40+ seminars to be presented over the three days of the Expo. For more information on this year's Expo, check out www.narimadison.com.

TZ of Madison, Inc. has expanded our booth this year. We will be located at booth #316 & 317. Stop by and check out our new space. Hope to see you there!
